

WELCOME TO THE CHARDSTOCK ONLINE DIRECTORY OF PARISH INFORMATION

(This edition August 2014)

The Chardstock Online Directory is a guide to what Chardstock has to offer, bringing together as much information as possible about the facilities, amenities and social events that can be found here. For so small a community, we are surprisingly well served.

However, although we may be well provided for, there are inevitably some needs which we cannot resource ourselves. So the directory also features some "out-of-parish" services. It does not try to be fully comprehensive about them, but is focused on things for which there is likely to be local demand.

We hope you find the directory useful.

Note: we are not liable for inaccurate or obsolete information or for omissions. If you find an error or a broken link, please notify chdstckdirectory@aol.com

Friends of St. Andrew's Church Chardstock (FOSACC)

Chair: Michael Brookbanks 220553

Secretary: John Middleton 220516

The Friends is a charitable trust, whose purpose is fund-raising to help pay for the maintenance of the Church building. It is active in the fields of tax-efficient giving (including Gift Aid), applying for appropriate grant-aid and sponsoring or organising fund-raising events. All money raised is strictly directed to repair and maintenance of the fabric of the church building.

Tending the Churchyard: Mainly grass cutting, but including hedge trimming, removal of weeds/brambles etc. The Organiser is Paul Hazell 01460 220263. A few more volunteers would be very useful (with own mower and/or strimmer and/or wheelbarrow!)

St. Andrews is also involved in administering a modest charitable activity in conjunction with All Saints

Chardstock Parish Trade Directory

For such a small parish, Chardstock is remarkably well served by local trades and businesses. A recent survey showed that there are well over 30 businesses, large and small, working from within the parish. The Parish Council produces a regularly updated Directory of trades and businesses based in Chardstock, follow the Chardstock Trade Directory link to access it online.

Parish Newsletter – (The newsletter is not currently available on-line).

The Chardstock Newsletter publishes local events and news (e.g. from the Church – including full details of services, the School or the Parish Council and other local activities and groups). It is produced monthly and 400 copies are delivered, free, to local residents' homes by a group of local volunteers. Any event of significance in the parish is likely to be advertised in the Newsletter, which is one of the prime means of communication between members of the Chardstock community.
